

I support XM radio. I am a truck driver and XM gives me the information I need before I get into range of the local station, either it is weather or traffic information. Please do not try to silence a gentle giant. Thank you.